12. To inspire teamwork, discipline, and civic responsibility through participation in national events.
13. To create awareness about the role of Gujarat and coastal states in India's maritime growth.

About Activities:

On 20th September 2025, a grand programme was organized at Jawahar Maidan, Bhavnagar, focusing on the theme of "Samudra Se Samruddhi" (Prosperity through Oceans). The event highlighted India's vision of promoting maritime development and encouraging the adoption of indigenous resources for sustainable growth.

The programme was graced by the Hon'ble Prime Minister of India, Shri Narendra Modi, who inaugurated the event. Before his arrival at the venue, a road show was held in Bhavnagar to warmly welcome him. In his address, Shri Modi emphasized the importance of strengthening India's blue economy, harnessing oceanic resources responsibly, and giving priority to swadeshi (local) products in order to boost self-reliance and national prosperity.

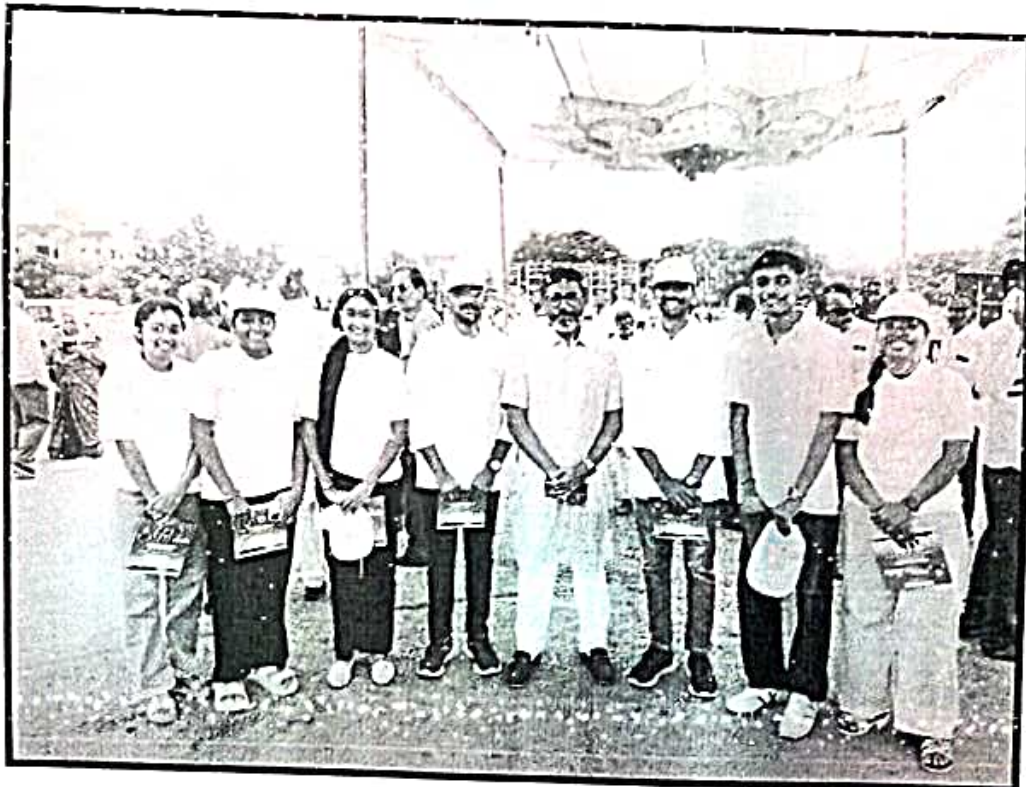

The event also witnessed the esteemed presence of the Hon'ble Chief Minister of Gujarat, Shri Bhupendra Patel, along with several local leaders. Their collective efforts contributed to the successful organization of this landmark programme.

As part of this national initiative, the NSS volunteers of Gyanmanjari Innovative University, under the guidance of NSS Programme Officer Prof. Pradip Prajapati, actively participated and contributed to the event. The volunteers demonstrated discipline, enthusiasm, and a strong sense of social responsibility throughout the programme.

University mentor Shri Mansukhbhai Nakarani Sir and staff members of the institution were also present to extend their support and encouragement.

The programme concluded with the inspiring address of Hon'ble Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi, leaving a strong message for the youth and citizens of India to contribute towards sustainable maritime development and the larger vision of Atmanirbhar Bharat (Self-reliant India).
