

Gyanmanjari

Innovative University

24/08/2026

Circular

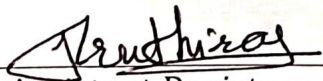

This is to inform all the GMIU staff members and students that the university will remain closed from 03/09/2026 (Thursday) to 05/09/2026 (Saturday) on the occasion of the holy festival of Shri Krishna Janmashtami.

The festival of Janmashtami marks the birth of Lord Krishna, the eighth avatar of Lord Vishnu. It is celebrated with devotion and enthusiasm across the country, symbolizing the victory of good over evil and the importance of love, compassion, and righteousness.

On this auspicious occasion, devotees engage in fasting, singing devotional songs, and reenacting episodes from Lord Krishna's childhood. The celebration also includes the popular ritual of Dahi Handi, which reflects the playful and loving nature of Krishna.

Note: Regular academic and administrative activities will resume on 07/09/2026 (Monday).

Wishing everyone a Happy and Blessed Janmashtami!

Assistant Registrar

Gyanmanjari Innovative University

Provost

Gyanmanjari Innovative University