Welcome

We are thankful to our Principal, Dr. H. M. Nimbark for guiding us to organize an expert talk on “Career guidance and development” from Mr. Sachin Sahegal (Training and Placement Officer, Pundit Dindayal Petroleum University, Gandhinagar)

In beginning, the Coordinator of Mechanical Department Mr. Krunal Khiraiya welcomes Mr. Sachin Sahegal with flower bouquet and wishes him to motivate and share his ideas on career development with students.

Introductory

The program was hosted by Prof. Preksha Oza. She introduced Mr. Sachin Sahegal to student and acknowledged them about his core expertise

Mr.Sachin Sahegal having vast knowledge and experience in Training and Placement sector, formerly he was used to be work with Nirma University and had placed over 14,000 engineering students in their desired field.

Highlights of Talk

In the beginning of his expert talk he has started with his experience of engineering and related issues because he himself is an engineer. He addressed the first semester students as richest students because they have lot to do right from their opening of career.

He insisted that two things are most important for career. First Planning and second the perfect execution of that Plan. He weighed down that only those people can become successful who has proper plan and desire of its implementation. He glimpses various successful entrepreneurs' stories to enlighten his ideas.

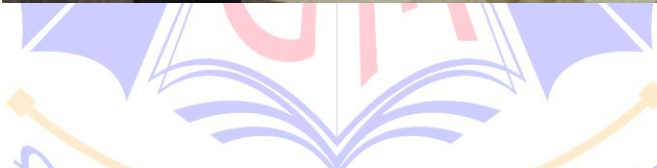

The pin drop silence was observed during his converse. He said that only those people can grow who think and act beyond his mastery. He added that “unless you try to do something beyond what you have already mastered, you will never grow.” Students applauded in the mid when he gave some extraordinary examples of common student who have passed through under his guideline and became successful in their career.

He overwhelmed students to be a perfect engineer, else no chance of existence in the era of competition. Moreover, he focused on self-confidence building and attachment towards desired goals. He advised to do tough work on fulfillment of dream career.

“It is a matter of great pleasure and pride that our students have an opportunity to perceive immense knowledge and share their ideas with Mr. Sachin” - These were the words of our honorable trustees Mr. Nakranisir & Mr. Avinashsir who were also be presented during the session.
